New Board Members

We are pleased to introduce to you our newest board members, Chris Nyland and Ryan Stevens. "OHT is honored to have determined two individuals to join our esteemed Board of Directors," said Dot Sheehan, Founder and CEO of Operation Hat Trick. "I am thankful to our current Board members for their unanimous decisions to add Chris and Ryan, and I look forward to all they will bring to the Board."

Chris Nyland is the Chief Operating Officer of The Campus Agency, an award winning, nontraditional media and marketing agency based in Boston, MA. "I am deeply honored to join the Board of Directors of Operation Hat Trick, an organization that has been close to my heart since the day it started," said Nyland of his appointment. "Watching its growth over the years and the support its mission has provided to wounded service members and veterans has been incredible to see. I am really looking forward to working with the rest of the team to help bring OHT to even higher levels in the days and years ahead."

Ryan Stevens retired in 2018 from the United States Marine Corps as a Gunnery Sergeant. He served in 2D ANGLICO, MARSOC and NSW DEVGRU conducting ten combat deployments in Iraq, Afghanistan and Somalia as a Joint Terminal Attack Controller (JTAC). Ryan, a graduate of the American Military University, is the recipient of two Purple Hearts and multiple valor awards including the Bronze Star Medal. He and his wife Stephanie have three children and currently own and operate Full Armor Farm in New Vineyard, Maine where they raise Scottish Highland beef cattle, maple syrup, apple cider and chicken eggs. Of his appointment to the Board of Directors, Stevens said "I feel blessed to be welcomed into an organization that has their heart in the right place helping warriors who have sacrificed so much for this great nation. God bless America!"
